Mom, Senator, Former Oak Hill Mayor will Bring Metro Focus Back to People Who Actually Live Here

DOWNTOWN - Surrounded by family, friends, and supporters, Sen. Heidi Campbell officially launched her campaign for Mayor of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County.

“Nashville is in the midst of a hostile takeover. As a state senator, I’ve been standing up for our city every day and I have a deep understanding of the issues between our local and state government,” said Campbell. “We need someone who has the experience and relationships to start with a clean slate and get results.”

Campbell was elected to the Tennessee Senate in 2020 after having served as Mayor of Oak Hill. As Mayor, she successfully guided the city through a financial crisis, keeping the city afloat while cutting her own pay and maintaining basic services.

In the Tennessee Senate, Heidi has been standing up for Nashville every day and has been a champion for public school students, teachers and their families—standing up to efforts that defund our local school districts. She’s achieved victories for veterans and commuters who want transportation solutions like rail.

“I know that leadership is not about telling people what to do, but about working with stakeholders, policy experts, and my colleagues to get the job done, not just talk about it or commission studies, but to get the job done,” said Campbell. “A good friend of mine always introduces me as a Mom who does politics. Right now Nashville needs a Mom and a Mayor we can count on to get the job done.”

Sen. Campbell kicks off her campaign with a growing list of endorsements including State Representatives Bob Freeman, Bo Mitchell, John Ray Clemmons, & Gloria Johnson, State Senator Sara Kyle, & School Board Member Cheryl Mayes.

“As a Senator, Heidi Campbell has shown up every single day and worked tirelessly to represent her constituents, as well as Tennessee families across the state. She’s a problem-solver who can work across the aisle”. - Rep. Bob Freeman

“Heidi’s greatest attribute is her ability to listen to everyone before moving forward. This enables her to solve problems creating widespread solutions.” - Rep. Bo Mitchell

My friend Heidi is the reliable, principled leader our city needs and our families deserve.” - Rep. John Ray Clemmons

Background on Campbell

Heidi Campbell is in her third year representing the 20th Senate District. She isn’t your typical politician. She’s a mom who loves her family and community—and that’s where her story starts. She was inspired to run for office in Oak Hill after a big developer lobbied City Hall to turn a greenspace into a strip mall. She’s been working to improve the lives of her neighbors ever since.

A daughter of respected physicians, Heidi grew up in Nashville. She is a former songwriter and musician with The Keep, and became a music industry executive and entrepreneur. Heidi and her husband, Andrew, are raising their two children in Oak Hill. When she’s not working, you’ll likely find her at a soccer field, hiking a local trail, or reading a good book.
